

Cranbrook Final Assembly Report - Equestrian

The Cranbrook equestrian team have had a brilliant year. The highlight has been having a jumping team qualify for the National Championships. Issy Stephen competed as part of that team and also as an individual, she won her class and is the current Individual National Show Jumping Champion.

Our riders compete in dressage, show jumping and eventing classes and have come away with too many placings and championship qualifications to list, it's been one of our most successful years yet. We are delighted to have such a strong membership all of whom bring different strengths to the team.

Good luck and a special well done to the leavers. Mrs Estall has provided a leavers gift for them and they would also like to sincerely thank the CSPA for supplying their kit.

Emily Freeman – who qualified for Addington on many occasions and Schools Arena Eventing Champion 2016

Issy Stephen: International Schools Champion riding for Team England (2016), National Show Jumping Champion (2017)

Hannah Williams – qualified for schools Championships at Addington, Hickstead and Keysoe

Katy Laver – Qualified for Championships at Hickstead and won the South-East England Eventers Championship last year.
