

Weekly Bulletin

w/c Monday 11th March 2019
Week B / March Menu

Notices:

- “Worth Less?” campaign for school funding: Included in the attachments below is a letter drafted by representatives of the Worth Less? campaign to improve school funding. As a school, we strongly identify with and support the arguments therein.
- Cranbrook School Choral Evensong: All are welcome to attend the Choral Evensong in St Dunstan's Church on Sunday 10th March from 6:00pm. Our Cranbrook School Consort Choir will be performing, and they have been working exceptionally hard to learn all the music for the service. It is a wonderful opportunity for our singers to take part in their first Choral Evensong in St Dunstan's and we hope that it will be the first of many. It should last around 30 minutes and we would be delighted to see you there.
- Lynx: For anybody who hasn't yet received a copy of the new Lynx magazine, there are plenty of copies available to collect from Reception in Barham House.
- Upcoming Spring Events: We are excited to be gearing up for our annual school events, Wear What You Like Day on Friday 29th March and House Shout on Thursday 4th April at 2:00pm for Day Houses and at 7:00pm for Boarding Houses. More information will follow in due course.
