

FUTURES

For courses, open days, lectures, volunteering, workshops and more....

Issue Date: FEBRUARY 12th 2020

Cranbrook
School

PERFORMING ARTS

For Year 10 upwards

West Kent College is holding a free taster session for their Performing Arts Department on Tuesday 3rd March at Brook Street, Tonbridge from 5.00pm to 7.00pm. This includes performing arts, musical theatre, technical theatre, dance and acting. Booking is essential at applications@westkent.ac.uk

LOCAL GAP YEAR OPPORTUNITY

For Year 13

Somerhill Prep School in Tonbridge is keen to employ a gap student from September. For more details about the position, please email Mrs S Lambert at slambert@somerhill.org. Applications close on 21st February.

PARTICLE PHYSICS SUMMER SCHOOL

For Year 10

The Particle Physics Summer school is a free three day residential course aimed at introducing students aged 14 to 15 to particle physics, science and engineering. It will be held at St Paul's School, London from Wednesday 8th to Friday 9th July. Applications require a short statement from the student and his/her teacher regarding suitability for the course. More details and application form from https://www.stpaulsschool.org.uk/our-community/school-charity-partnerships/particle-physics-summer-school/?fbclid=IwAR1hmaTvFLjf2jpKPkeeg8KazIZgvt84axqabOjf-XhgrJX4zsNFiU_XiA

CIVIL ENGINEERING APPRENTICESHIPS

For Sixth Form

If you are excited by designing, building, solving problems and improving lives then a career in civil engineering could be for you and, civil engineering apprenticeships are a great way to enter the profession and earn while you learn. Civil engineers are in demand across the UK and the world, have similar status to doctors and lawyers and an average salary is around £46,400. For more details take a look at the Institution of Civil Engineers website <https://www.ice.org.uk>

UNIVERSITY & APPRENTICESHIP SEARCH FAIR

For Sixth Form

The UK University and Apprenticeship Search Fair takes place at Arsenal's Emirates Stadium on 28 February. The event features apprenticeship and university seminars as well as Creative, STEM and sport interactive hubs, providing a complete range of options for post-18 education and career choices. Admission is completely free. More details from:

<https://www.ukuniversitysearch.com/fair-signup/london-spring-2020-2>