

WRITE - & WIN £75!

WRITE A SHORT STORY - YOU COULD WIN £75!

This year the School's annual CSPA/Library short story competition will be judged by author Marcus Sedgwick. Marcus has written many books for young adults including Floodland, The Ghosts of Heaven, The Foreshadowing, Midwinter Blood, She is Not Invisible and Revolver. His latest book, Voyages In The Under World Of Orpheus Black, has been shortlisted for the 2020 CILIP Carnegie Medal. This is the eighth time Marcus has been shortlisted for the UK's most prestigious prize for writing for young people and it is fantastic that he is able to judge our competition this year.

All short-listed stories will be sent to Marcus for judging and prizes of £75 will be awarded for first prize and £25 for second prize in three age groups: Year 7/8, Year 9/10/11 and sixth form.

HOW TO ENTER

- Write an original story on a theme of your choice
- No more than 1000 words
- Entries must be typed - hand written entries will not be accepted
- Name and year group on the back of each sheet
- Closing date, 4th November 2020
- Entries to be handed in to your tutor or your English teacher

