I can record ideas from observation with great sensitivity, demonstrating an embedded understanding of accurate proportions, form and structure. I can select and arrange the formal elements with an understanding of the qualities of materials and processes combining these thoughtfully to realise my intentions	I can express and realise my ideas, insights and views with imagination, flair and sensitivity in an original and unique way to successfully fulfil my intentions. I can extend my ideas and skills further from an initial starting point to several end pieces that are supported with preparatory studies
