

LEARNING SUPPORT ASSISTANT

We are looking to recruit a Learning Support Assistant (LSA), who will support the teaching and learning of a student with Autistic Spectrum Condition. The candidate will ideally need to have a good understanding of students with additional educational needs and relevant experience in working with them in an educational setting. Applications are particularly welcome from candidates with specific prior experience of supporting students with a diagnosis of autism or sensory difficulties.

As an LSA you will be committed to inclusive education by helping the student access the curriculum, participate in the wider life of the school and reach their expected achievements.

We are looking to appoint an assistant with good literacy, numeracy and communication skills as well as resilience, initiative, flexibility, a sense of humour and the ability to relate to children.

Flexible 18 hours: within the school day to be agreed. Salary: Grade B15 - £22,135 - £8,672 pro rata

The position is dependent on the students remaining on the school roll school and continuing to be in receipt of additionally funded support. This position is term time only, plus 1 week of Inset
